FROM OUR SOCIETIES

EUPHRADIAN

Chas. T. Simpson, Editor.

On last Saturday night L. F. Belser, '10, Richland, and B. D. Carter, Law '10, Bamberg, were elected to represent the Euphradian Society in the Roddey Medal Debate.

The debate last Saturday night was unusually good. It was won by the affirmative, represented by Messrs. C. A. Ashley and B. D. Carter. The query was: Resolved, "That the pledge against hazing will work for the ultimate good of the University." Both sides were well prepared and showed great interest in the question. Let this always be the case. When you are assigned to debate, don't shirk your duty, but prepare yourself and come up and put some life into the debate. "What's worth doing at all is worth doing well."

Following is the list of new members taken in the Society since October 3d:

Allen Jones, Jr., '07, a loyal Euphradian, is now pursuing his textile studies at Clemson College.

J. H. Rogers, '06, a true Euphradian, is now studying mathematics at Yale.

Following are the appointments for the literary exercises for one and two weeks hence:

For October 31, 1908.

Readers—Brockinton, Clark and H. Green.

Declaimers—Seibels, R. Y. Wright and Mobley.

Weekly Orator—J. H. Johnson.

DEBATE

Affirmative—Carroll, Fromberg.

Negative—Hand, Laird.

Query: Resolved, That the funds for the national campaigns should be provided by congressional appropriation.

CLARIOSSOPHIC

W. B. Klugh, Editor.

At the last meeting of the Society the attendance was larger, much larger than usual. Doubtless this was caused by that particular night being election night, and doubtless the attendance will be as good again until next election night.

At every meeting of the Society a large percentage of the men who are on duty cut the exercises for no reason whatever. Men, this should not be so. It is your duty to give your hardest work to your Society. If you are on duty don't shirk, but come and do the best you can. If you are not on duty come anyway, for it is to your own good as well as to the good of the Society that you be punctual.

The following officers were elected on last Saturday night:

The following are the programmes for one and two weeks hence:

October 17, 1908.

DEBATE.

Query: Resolved, That the jury system should be abolished. Affirmative—McDonald, Miller and V. J. Rector. Negative—Beverly, Mellichamp and Ritter.

PROGRAMME FOR OCTOBER 24, 1908.

DEBATE.

Query: Resolved, That the qualifications for voting in the Democratic primary should be the same as in the general election. Affirmative—McCarthy, Ferguson and Johnson. Negative—Blake, Kinard and Officer.

We're for Carolina
(Tune: "Eli Banana.")

Around the end, boys;
Our backs we'll send, boys;
And we'll smash, smash, smash
Right through the line.
We're here to yell, boys;
We'll give 'em hell, boys;
We're for Carolina, boys, yes, every time, time, time.

FROM THE GRAMMAR OF LOVE

Conjugation of the word "buss," "to kiss."

Buss—A kiss.

Rebus—To kiss again.

Pluribus—To kiss many times.

Syllabus—To kiss a homely girl.

Blunderbuss—To kiss the wrong person.

Omnibus—To kiss everybody.

Erebus—To kiss in the dark.

—Selected.