S. C. UNIVERSITY 19
GA. MED. COLLEGE 5

Carolina Was in Rare Form and Played a Pretty Game.

ONSIDE KICK A FEATURE

Murdough Made a Ninety-Five Yard Run For a Touchdown.

In Augusta on November 4 Carolina wallpapered the Georgia Medical team in their second gridiron battle by the score of 19 to 5. Last season this same team was defeated on the local grounds by a small margin, and this year's game was a pleasant surprise to us all.

The teams seemed quite evenly matched at the opening of the contest, though Georgia was much heavier in the line. After a short time Murdough got the ball on a fumble and made a spectacular 95-yard touchdown. This put new life into the Carolina men and Georgia was "easy meat" from then on.

However, Georgia's backfield never let up in their playing, and by consistent gains also scored a touchdown. J. A. Brown made a perfect forward pass for W. B. Brown for a 45-yard gain. The backs seemed almost considerable gains around our ends. Carolina again scored a touchdown during the remainder of this half.

In the second half of Carolina played superb ball. The new style of play was used almost entirely and was better executed than during any previous game. The team worked like an electric machine and put snap and gadget into every play. They had eyes open to Georgia's weak plays, as was seen when Carter threw a Georgia man for a safety.

Carolina tried a series of forward passes and onside kicks which worked beautifully. Georgia seemed powerless against these dashing plays, which were the feature of the game. It was great. Carolina was in magnificent form and her playing far exceeded the expectations of the optimistic one. You would have thought that they were veterans instead of inexperienced men.

Capt. W. B. Brown showed up well, as did J. A. Brown, and Brinkley, also. Gehron and Prince played a good game.

The entire Carolina team played so well that it is a difficult matter to pick any "stars." The back field was "the joy" in every department of the game all the time. The ends were fast and got down under punts better than ever before. Mobley and Carter held their own well against Georgia's heavy line. The little "Gamecocks" showed the stuff they are made off and are to be congratulated on their work.

Several of the students accompanied the team on their trip. They were (Continued on page 2.)

The Carolina Football Schedule

Oct. 3—Carolina vs. Ridgewood,..........................at Columbia 0-0
Oct. 10—Carolina vs. College of Charleston,..................at Columbia 17-0
Oct. 17—Carolina vs. University of Georgia,..................at Athens 6-29
Nov. 2—Carolina vs. Charleston Athletic.............at Columbia 4-12
Oct. 29—Carolina vs. Davidson (Fair Week).............at Columbia 0-22
Nov. 4—Carolina vs. Georgia Medical College..............at Augusta 19-5
Nov. 7—Carolina vs. Bingham..........................at Columbia 6-10
Nov. 14—Carolina vs. University of N. C. at Chapel Hill 0-42
Nov. 26—Carolina vs. Citadel (Thanksgiving)..............at Charleston 1-0

BINGHAM 10, CAROLINA 6

GAME HARD FOUGHT AT TIMES

Bingham's Forward Pass Was a Feature. Koon Starr for Bingham.

In the gridiron battle between Bingham and Carolina last Saturday, the members of the garnet and black were defeated by a score of 10 to 6. Ham- mond made a beautiful kick off to Bingham, and from that moment the Bingham boys got right into the game. Although it was impossible to keep them from going down the field, by a series of line plays and end runs, for a touchdown, followed by a goal kick. The ball was then brought to the middle of the field and Hammond made another pretty kick. The visitors again got after our boys and it was not long before they were on our 20-yard line, where they made an easy field goal. It was not until after Bingham had made a series of 10-yard line gains that Carolina's "Varsity" could put up as good a fight as they could, with all their "ringers." From this time on our boys put up a steady game and in a short time, by a series of straight line backs, they Handling the ball over, Belscer making the touchdown. Hammond kicked goal. The ball was again carried to the middle of the field and Bingham kicked off to Carolina. "Billy" Perrin received the ball and carried it some distance down the field. This was followed up by pretty quick playing on both sides, but from this time to the end of the half the "Varsity" seemed to have the upper hand of it. The half ended without further score.

In the last half neither side scored. In the first of this half our boys seemed to fight with the same spirit with which they were fighting at the close of the first half. They carried the ball into Bingham's territory right away, and it seemed as if they would make the ball score on the jump. But suddenly the visitors seemed to wake up to the situation, and held the

THE GERMAN CLUB ENTERTAINED

THE PARTY WAS A TYPICAL HALLOWE'en CELEBRATION.

DR. AND MRS. G. A. WAUCHOPE

Gave the Young People a Rare Treat. Miss Hayne Rendered Some Very Appropriate Selections.

Halloween, when ghosts and witches hold full sway, was most delightfully celebrated by Dr. and Mrs. Wauchope with a party given to the German Club and the young ladies of the college set. In all it was one of the most enjoyable occasions of the present semester, and "something doing every minute," as the show men say.

The guests, on arriving, would be held by the door swing open of its own accord, disclosing a gloomy cavern, where two terrifying beings stood ready to receive them. As the door opened, they were motioned toward the stairway, but there was yet another ghostly figure to be passed before they reached the comparative safety of the parlor. These were dimly lighted, there being no illumination save candles and jack-o-lanterns, and ghostly figures, witches and goblins moved back and forth among the awe-struck company.

Later the lights were turned on, and every one had a jolly time bobbing for apples, and so forth. When one wished of this, they might pass through devious, darksome parlor, and the first to dance on the stairs, to the accompaniment of her crab, of a most realistic witch. She, in a voice to make hair rise, would speak of the thrilling inquirer's past, and draw aside, for a moment, the veil from the future. Though she was mostly love affairs she dealt in that night.

When all had been informed that "The Fair One is Fake," or "Beware of a Dark Man," supper was served, and a most toothsome and seasonal repast it was. The dining room was lighted by grotesque pumpkins lanterns and candles through yellow paper.

The guests being once more assembled in the parlor, Miss Hayne proved herself a finished elocutionist, and was brought back again and again by the enthusiastic encore of her delectable repast. (Continued on page 3.)

THE STATE TENNIS TOURNAMENT

To Be Held at Carolina the First Week in December.

MUCH INTEREST IS MANIFESTED

President Davis has appointed committees to arrange details.

An effort is being made by the Tennis Association of the University to have the intercollegiate tennis meet held on the campus this month or the first of December.

A letter was received from Mr. Workman, of Furman University, who is President of the State Tennis Association, asking the University of South Carolina if it would be convenient to hold the meet in this city some time.

President Harry Davis, of the Carolina Lawn Tennis Association, after the boys decided that the meet could be called and the meet was set for the second Monday in October, informing him that Carolina would gladly entertain the tennis players, and would do all necessary things to carry off the event.

Through the efforts of Furman and a few other colleges of the State, the Intercollegiate Tennis Association was formed in the fall of 1906, and the first meet was held the same year in the city of Greenville. The following colleges were representatives: Furman, Carolina, Clinton, Newberry, Wofford and Erskine. All expenses of sending players to the meet, and the expenses of the occasion were borne by the city of Greenville, and also handsome cups were offered to the winners, which were won in singles and doubles by Erskine. The event was very successful, and the visitors received excellent entertainment at the hands of the Furman boys and the people of Greenville.

Last year the meet was held in the Richland Hall, again, and there were seven colleges represented, including Clemson, who had not been present of the previous year. The Erskine men again won both singles and doubles, Miss Hayne, of Furman, won the singles, and by the expenses of the players were not paid by the City of Greenville as previously.

Before the teams left a meeting was called at which Mr. Workman was put on a better basis, with Workman, of Furman, as President. It was decided to hold the tournament in the spring of the year, and an account of the bad weather in the fall.

The meet to be held this year is to be pulled off so that 1908 will not be passed by without a meet of the college.