be devoted to keeping up practice and in an effort to give that missed and tells us now in track

It is a peculiar pleasure to give voice to the common student sentiment in expressing to Dr. George A. Wauchow the pleasure, present and anticipated, by reason of his university student song, "A Health to Carolina." It is the first, so far as we know, of its kind. The effort

The First Hour Monday.

Lately the administration of the university has fallen into the habit of taking the open hour Monday morning to introduce to the assembled student body various speakers, more or less noteworthy. We think this came about mainly from an ignorance on the part of the president and the traditions and the institutions.

Since we attend classes six days in the week and are expected to tackle church on Sundays, the first hour on Monday morning has always been left open to allay the necessity of going to the first classes without preparation, and also, and perhaps for the better reason, of allowing a suitable time for the holding of the student body meetings.

Now, while we see plainly the wisdom that prompted the bringing before the students of the views of its members to give the information pertinent and interest in the larger and more important questions of baseball and football. But since these intervening ones are for the better part we want to look at things right, and do all possible to enforce the enthusiasm over a good track team at the university.

We had some work two years ago, and made an excellent showing last season when the conditions preceding are considered.

Now this year we have as physical director a man with a record and a brain, for the work with the push and go and real down right love for the sport that will ensure the putting of a team that will make the most of what we have.

The student body should get behind track the more, because it is so comprehensive, including and providing for athletics of so many kinds.
