Clothing Sale at Edmunds

Don't fail to come in and see what we can save you on Clothes. Great reductions in our immense Clothing Stock. Absolutely all wool garments.

New Brown, Tans, Browns, all sizes, we can fit you.

The Garments are strictly all hand-tailored and will hold their shape.

EDMUNDS
HOME OF GOOD CLOTHES

ARRANGE DEBATE
WITH TWO COLLEGES

Carolina Will Contest With Davidson and Trinity.—The Articles of Agreement Drawn Up.

The representatives of the debating council from Davidson, Trinity and Carolina met in Durham last Thursday. These representatives drew up contracts and constitutions for the contests between these institutions. Carolina will meet Trinity at Durham on the second Saturday night in March, 1912, and will meet Davidson at Chester on March the 4th. Professor L. T. Baker and A. H. Williams represented Carolina at this meeting.

These are the first contests of this kind that Carolina has entered for this line of work are urged to enter the preliminary here. This preliminary will be held on February 15th, 1912.

The contract with Trinity is as follows:

Section 1. There shall be one debate between Davidson and Carolina.

Section 2. One institution shall propose the query and the other the names of fifteen men in no way connected with the contesting institutions, from which list eight men shall be selected from the first institution and sent back to the second to be invited in the order in which they are arranged, to act as judges.

Section 3. Davidson shall submit the question and Carolina shall choose the side.

Section 4. The judges shall render written verdicts without consultation.

Section 5. Any student carrying full work shall be eligible for the debate, provided he is not carrying post-graduate work. No student having taken a degree or who has received pay for public speaking shall be eligible for the debate.

Section 6. There shall be three representatives from each college composing the team.

Section 7. Each institution shall be allowed sixty minutes to be used as they see fit and not over fifteen minutes for rejoinder.

Section 8. The side opening the debate shall close it.

Section 9. Each institution shall de- fray one-half of the expenses of the debate.

Section 10. If the terms of the question are ambiguous, the two parties shall agree on interpretation before the debate.

Section 11. The debate shall be held on March 4th, 1912.

Section 12. The question shall be submitted Dec. 15th, 1911.

Section 13. The side to whom the question is submitted shall render decision within five days after receiving said question.

Sec. 14. Neither college shall submit a question that has been previously used by either college in an inter-collegiate debate within two years from time of submitting query.

Sec. 15. The debate shall be held in Chester.

Sec. 16. The presiding officer shall be a student who shall come from a friendly institution, the institution to be selected later.

Sec. 17. The schools from which each may graduate who is proposed as judge and his profession and his political affiliations, if ascertainable, shall be given.

Sec. 18. The number of judges shall be three.

The contest with Davidson is the same with the exceptions of sections 2, 7, 11, 15, 16 and 17. In section 2, fifteen men are proposed and eight selected. Section 7, each side is allowed sixty minutes to be used as they see fit and not over fifteen minutes for rejoinder. Section 11, debate shall be held March 4th. Section 15, debate will be held in Chester. No sections sixteen and seventeen.

CAMPUSGRAMS

Jim Wideman, law class of '11 and captain of the baseball team last year, was in the city for several days this week on business.

J. Oliver Havird, former left fielder on the University team, spent several days in the city this week on business.

J. Dantzler, class of '11, was on the campus last Tuesday and Wednesday. Dantzler has been doing engineering work in Marion County under the supervision of Prof. Homes. He will be engaged in some work in Fairfield county for a few months.

Archie Richardson, a former student of law department here, was in the city a few days last week. He is doing newspaper work in Spartanburg.

W. M. Graydon has returned to the campus after a few days of illness at his home.

Joe Phipps made a short visit to his home at Clinton last week.

Nat Kennedy is spending a few days at his home this week.

Heffron has returned after a short stay in Charleston.

Professor L. T. Baker and A. H. Williams, who went to Charlotte as representatives of the debating council, returned Wednesday.

Best motion pictures daily. The Lyric.