Glee Club and Orchestra Will Visit Several South Carolina Cities This Month.

The University Glee Club and Orchestra will leave on the 8th for a short trip, on which they will entertain the lovers of music at Converse College ( Spartanburg), Greenville, Abbeville and Greenwood on the evenings of the 8th, 10th, 12th and 1st, respectively. There will be about ten men in the group besides those in the orchestra, making a total of sixteen. The names of those who will take the trip are: Blake, Reeves, White, Sligh, Dozier, Perkins, D. McCrady, McGowan, Paul, Lumpkin, Monads, Black, Cook, Sexy, Hennessee and Perkins, L.

This tour bids fair to be one of the most successful of its kind in the history of the University. In fact, it has been only during the last few years that the University has been privileged to have an orchestra. With the addition of the orchestra and such select talent composing the Glee Club, Carolina can expect extended praise and fame.

Garnet and Black Goes to Press at an Early Date.

The Garnet and Black, the annual publication by the students of the University, is worthy of and should have the co-operation of every man in college. It is far from an easy task that the members of the staff have on their hands and their load will be much lighter if every man will lend his aid.

The editor-in-chief has given notice that all material for the annual must be in his hands by Thursday night. They are not only willing but also glad to accept any sketches, poems, plays, stories, etc., which may be offered to them. The editors hope to make this issue of the Garnet and Black the best in the history of the institution, but that will only be possible through the willingness to contribute. Write something, whatever merit it may have, and if it is accepted by the staff you will feel proud to see your sketch in the contents.

Gonzales Contest to be Held on Night of May 8.

On May 8th the Gonzales Oratorical contest will be held. The speakers in this contest will be: From the Clarionophic Society T. S. Marmillou and Hoyt Watson; from the Greekphic Society J. B. Murphy, F. W. M. Woodrow and Joe Wrightson.

There will probably be two other speakers from the student body—J. B. Mitchell and M. S. Broham.

The SICK

Clyde Davis is at work again after an illness of seven weeks.

At present Messrs. Razor, Vann, Weinberg, M. M. Manning, Williams, George, and Evans are confined in the infirmary. Fortunately none are seriously ill and will be able, in a few days, to resume their work in college.

The State Prizes "Sketches" of J. Brodous Mitchell.

The State of Thursday carried the following story concerning "Sketches" by Brodous Mitchell, a University student:

"A number of the friends of Brodous Mitchell, the son of the president of the University of South Carolina, are in receipt of an attractive booklet, the title of which is 'Sketches.' The contents are a dozen or so charming studies. In some instances these are merely artistic descriptions of certain phases of nature, such as 'Evening,' 'Darkness,' 'Moonlight;' others are built up on the lines of the sonnet, and turn on a certain incident. In fact, these last are sonnets in prose. Some of this class are 'The Mirror,' 'In the Attic,' 'Dreams.' They are all very brief, and show a most decided effort to be scrupulously true to the subject in hand.

"The dignity, volume, in varying shades of brown and crimson, is dedicated to 'The Ineffable Princess,' and if she is as the dedication describes her this literary offering should be most acceptable, for it breathe of youth and faith and artistic literary ability.

"Mr. Mitchell is now in his junior year at the University. He was formerly editor and associate editor, respectively, of The Gamecock, and still contributes to both The Gamecock and The Carolinian, the first-named being the weekly and the last the monthly magazine of the University.

"But, desiring real experience in the newspaper field, this talented young man broke into the ranks of the 'tab reporter,' and as such worked on the Columbia Record during his vacation last year. His friends are predicting for him an interesting career."

College Seal Jewelry

We have a line assortment in jewelry bearing the Seal of the University of S. C., consisting of rings, watch fobs, pocket pins and stick pins. These goods are very popular with the men of all the State Universities and should also attract the students here at Carolina. We are headquarters for college man's furnishings, etc.

The University of South Carolina

Founded by the State in 1801 in the Capital City

The University has the following departments of study:

I. The College, with various courses of study in Languages, History, Science, etc., leading to the degrees of A. B. and B. S. Five general scholarships, worth from $100 to $150 each.

II. Undergraduate School, with advanced courses leading to the degree of Master of Arts.

The graduates of the colleges of South Carolina are admitted to the University in all courses, except Law, without charge for tuition.

III. The School of Commerce and Finance, with a course leading to the degree of A. B. Special two-years' course for men who expect to enter business, journalism, the public service, or law.

IV. School for Teachers, which seeks to prepare persons to serve the State as teachers, principals and superintendents of schools. In this course the A. B. degree is conferred. Forty-three teachers' scholarships, each worth $100 in cash and exemption from tuition and term fees.

V. Engineering, Civil and Electrical, leading to the degrees of C. E. and E. E. Practical Work in Road Construction.

VI. Law, with a course leading to the degree of L. L. B. The presence of the various courts and the use of the State Law Library afford exceptional facilities.

Graduates of the Law School are admitted to the State Bar without examination.

Through its system of Extension Teaching the University offers correspondence courses, public lectures, and night classes, to persons unable otherwise to receive academic training.

College fees for the year, $25. For women college fees are only $12. For those paying tuition, $40 additional. Room, with light and service, $8 a year.

Active teachers have the advantages of the University without any charge whatever. Loan funds available.
