Washington and Lee-registered a record setting score over Morris-Harvey College, Saturday, Oct. 3, 103 to 0.

Members of the University of Tennessee Alumni Association are about to help their Alma Mater by a proposed purchase of a tract of land to be turned into a model athletic field.

From August 27th to 31st, the first "Home-Coming" of Ex-Clemson students was held at Clemson College. The total attendance was 523, which constitutes, probably, the largest gathering of college men ever held in the South.

Coker.
Dr. and Mrs. Howard Lee Jones were at home to the faculty and student body on Friday afternoon, Oct. 2, 1914.

On Tuesday, Oct. 6, 1914, the Susan Stout Coker Memorial Hall was dedicated with appropriate services. The speakers for the morning services were: Rev. E. E. Dargan, D. D., L. L. D. and Mrs. G. R. Chambers. For the dedicatory exercises in the afternoon; Judge C. A. Woods and Prof. W. H. Hand. A general reception was held in the spacious parlor of this hall in the evening.

Winthrop.
The Young Women's Christian Association of Winthrop gave its annual reception to the new girls in the Main-Building on Saturday night, September 19. Dr. W. D. Weatherford and Miss Amy Smith were guests of honor.

A series of fine lectures was delivered by Dr. W. D. Weatherford in the college auditorium. His general subject was Christian Fundamentalism. All the new girls were invited to meet the President and members of the Currv Literary Society in a social meeting held on back campus, September 20.

There was a public meeting of the Winbde Hampton Literary Society on Monday evening, October 5. The subject for the evening was "Germans." A real-of-moving pictures, "War is Hell," concluded a most interesting and instructive program.

Infirmary Notes.
For so far, this has been an unusually healthy year on the campus.
Barksdale, of the freshman class has been the only man in the infirmary. We are glad to say that his case is not serious, and we trust that in a few days he will be able to resume his studies again.

In Cornell.
Alva I. Green, a member of the class of '13 is now enjoying a course in Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.
The following is an extract from a letter received by our business manager from Green:
"Please give my regards to the dear old school and tell them that my heart is with Carolina and especially her football team. I certainly hope we can repeat the victory of 1912.
With best wishes to 'The Bird,' Carolina and everything else that savors from the old campus, I remain,
Yours very truly,
Alva I. Green."

Thé 'Tach Game.
In her opening game Carolina lost to Georgia Tech by a score of 20 to 0. As the field was ankle deep in mud our back field men could not make any telling runs with the ball. Consequently the Gamecocks had to play defensive ball most of the time.
Captain Hill played star ball. Marvin Porter tore the ball many times for over fifty yards. Considering the strong team Tech put out and the muddy field, we must say that our team played good ball.

The senior class will present "Everygirl," a morality play. In two acts, in the auditorium Saturday night, October 10.

Coming! The Oratorio-Artists. Everyone is delighted that Reed Miller will appear here again with the Oratorio Artists Monday night; October 12.
