Hypatians Meet.

The regular Hypatian Literary Society was held Tuesday evening, November 13, 1932. Miss Annie Car was the presiding officer. The program consisted of a debate, questions about the administration, and a speech by Mr. T. C. (Gree) Graydon, an old friend of the society. This was called upon by the President for a speech.

Mr. Graydon talked on the political situation and many other important questions that have been brought up in recent times. After he finished his speech, many questions were asked by students and they had a good debate session.

The end of the debate, Miss Annie Car called on the last speaker to say a few words about the society. She concluded with the statement that the society would meet next Tuesday evening.

The meeting adjourned.
