SCRIPT DANCE TO BE FEATURE OF FAIR WEEK

One of the most looked for social events of the week is the Annual Dance to be given at the Gymnasium this Saturday night, November 22. Dr. Martin, Mrs. Martin, and members of the faculty and their wives are to be invited guests.

The particular feature of the Dance will be the " confines of the Terpsichorean act. Nay, more, he- rung, a new "night dancer, one wherein he and his orches- trists have managed to do something of the larger form of the composition.

Although not in "the getting to-gether place" of the semester coming in much, this year's fair is quite different.

In the past the party was held on his 36 year's age and in the High School. The verder of pants followed until Jeffords, who grew up to 35 year's. The third was the South Carolina. This was also a kick back for 15 years and a punton the same dance, this year's fair is quite different.

The dance was kicked to the end of the game. The ball on his hand line Moore fumbled but regun-

ned and the ball was fumbled by Jef-
