Advice to Lovelorn
By Beatrice Barefactes
Dear Miss Barefactes:
I am a young girl just stepping out into the world. I want to be enlightened on some points of etiquette. When I am in difficulty, shall I offer a girl a drink from my flask or not? If she daces away, will I join her? Pardah

Dear Pardah:
Never, never offer a girl a drink.
A girl must not be treated with such liberty. If a girl asks to be entertained, she is continuingly giving me presents. He takes me up to supper and explains his thoughts of art to me. He says all this is part of art. I don't know what he means, but I don't think he wants to marry me What do you mean by art, please?
Model

Dear Member: Evil woman's theories of art different from mine. I think I have one that this other case prove well. When a man comes to offer a girl and gives her precious--that's love. When a woman wants to marry him it will give her presentations--that's art--on somebody.

Dear Miss Barefactes:
I was only an innocent country girl who still remember me to bring him to the big city with him. If she is interested in it he will be interested, and I want to know what you would do if you were in his case. How can I get out of jail?

Dear Helen:
So you have eloped, been involved in a murder case; been in jail and are still innocent and want advice? Listen, Helen, you are still like a good girl and then I'll tell you.
