Glee Club Leaves For Long Trip

Chicago To Climax Tour

Eighteen Members Will Leave Wednesday For Annual Trip To Climax Tour

December 11, the University Glee Club composed of eighteen members will leave for Climax Tour, a northern tour which will take them to Climax, Illinois, for the first time by plane and night by sight. Professor Maurice Matteson of the University faculty will accompany the club. The Glee club has recently adopted the name of Carolina Folks Singers, and will continue under that title as its tour. The Singers have chosen one of their number, Dr. E. L. Bass, as their conductor. The name, or the club, or both will be changed before they return.

The itinerary for the singers will take them to seven different cities, the climax of the tour coming in Champaign, III, where two radio broadcasts will be made, one by the National Broadcasting system and the other by the Hearst system. The vocalists will appear in programs previously arranged by Professor Matteson for the club and his orchestra at the College in Cincinatti.

In Atlanta, where they will stop on December 13th, they will give a concert twice over station WSB.

The following schedule of the tour has been announced by Prof. Matteson:
