Dismissal Of Carmichael Leads To Investigation of Faculty Tenure in School.

A scathing report attacking the conditions under which students could "Conversational Attaacked by Aapu" at the University of Pennsylvania was published in the recent bulletin of the American Association of University Professors. The report, written by Professor P. A. Carmichael, professor of English and chairman of the department of English, in charge of teaching in such manner as to displease the religious beliefs of students of that region and community of Sparta, Pennsylvania. The report, presented to the Board of Trustees of the university, was similar in spirit to the action taken by the authorities at the University of Minnesota, which resulted in the withdrawal of the school from the American Association of University Professors.

On April 15, 1931, Dr. Peter Car- michael wrote to the president of the American Association of University Professors, Dr. Paul V. A. C. Carmichael, who was chairman of the A. U. P. D. committee, requesting that the report be submitted to the A. U. P. D. committee for consideration. The report, which was submitted to the A. U. P. D. committee, was similar in spirit to the action taken by the authorities at the University of Minnesota, which resulted in the withdrawal of the school from the American Association of University Professors.
