Qualifying Round To Be Held At Ridgeway Club Saturday And Sunday Afternoon

Carolina's tournament golf team will hold their qualifying rounds on the Ridgeway Country Club course Saturday and Sunday afternoon, to determine the team members for the University's 1936 intercollegiate tourney.

Thirty-six holes of medal play will be held, and all persons interested in trying for the varsity golf starting squad may turn in the entry blank on the golf course.

Although matches have been arranged with Furman and Richmond Academy of Augusta, the list is not yet finalized. Jack Crawford, radio reporter of physical education, said he was working with Clemson, Davidson College and Furman before completing the schedule.

Those expected to participate in the qualifying rounds are: Bob Lewis, Hattie Sparrow, Crawford White and Robert Flowers of last year's freshman team; George Hart, Barrie Abrams and Allen Clarkson of last year's varsity and numerous others, among them Andrew Figgins, Billy and Joe Sylvan and Freeman Coggins.

Bird Friends Meet Alumni

A varied sports program will offer the students today Tuesday in the gym. Ticket-holding students and the season ticket-holding team meet the alumni for 4 p.m. at the gym. Intercollegiate basketball games will also be held.

Because of the illness of Coach Carr,琨琨, which forced him to stay in bed last week and withdraw from school, the team was forced to cancel the game with the College of Charleston Saturday night but the contest was rescheduled.
