Deadline Set For Pictures By A. J. McDonald

Deadline for pictures in the Calendar and South is October 22. Pictures will be taken at the University Store, 1405 Main Street, and no pictures will be made after the above date, according to G. G. Dowling, editor.

The theme of the Calendar and South is "People and the Game," which South Carolina has played a part in developing, and all through which the state has passed. Due to a provision in this year’s constitution, the photos must be in Atlanta by November 3. Thus, all pictures have to be made by October 22 in order that the necessary number of prints be made up. Anyone wishing to purchase an autographed print may secure it at Tom’s Studio, or from G. G. Dowling and G. W. Crow.
