A.K. G. Carnival Held Friday

Many Fortunes Told

Guests Jig To Merry Tunes From Aladine Blowers

The field house was the scene of gay festivities, Friday night, when Alpha Kappa Gamma, honorary leadership fraternity, sponsored a carnival from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock in the evening.

The Ajax orchestra furnished music for dancing and dancing was enjoyed.

Betty Jean Sovocek and Eleanor Mcintire were in charge of the carnival after being chosen by Z. A. and Phi Beta Kappa, respectively. Lucky participants walked away from the Tri Da-Da-O. A. dance, table boxes with trinkets of music and music and other gifts were trying their luck at the gold boxes presented by Delta Zeta and Sigma Kappa.

Pencils, soft drinks and ice cream were sold by members of A. D. Pi and Chi Omega.

Olivia Memry was given to create a delectable array of the members and to raise money for the Alpha Kappa Gamma convention to be held here November 30th and December 1st.

Officers of Alpha Kappa Gamma this year are: Betty Bailey, president; Elizabeth Williams, vice president; Josephine Philson, secretary, and "Duke" Gaines, treasurer.

Five Elected

To Dams Club

In Chapel Last Tuesday

Club Also Desires To Obtain Outside Orchestra For Christmas Ball

Five girls were elected into the Dams club during the last Tuesday meeting in the chapel. They are: Anne Collins, Elizabeth K. McEnroe, Phyllis Parker, Kathleen K. Roberts, and Barbara Stewart.

It was decided at the meeting to allow one of our outside students to direct the Christmas ball if possible. Betty Wrenn, Edith Wright, and Marion Walker were appointed on the committee to attend to the arrangements.

The dance is held on the first possible Friday in December.

The invitation was accepted by the mayor, mayor of Charleston. Dr. Baker is unable to attend because he is in Europe. Mrs. Caroline Bradley was expected to represent the University.

Graduate Boys Lead Discussion Enrollment

(COMPILATED FROM PAGE ONE)

J. Ross McKinnon as leader and David Lee, delivered, "The War." Approximately 300 were enrolled in the 10 campus groups already organized.

Among them are those who have been doing their work during the war and have been turned in.

The University isfirm, or so-called phonics. The men are all doing some sort of musical work. Some are singing songs, while others are writing and music is enjoyed.

This brings a new group of students to the music department, and it is hoped that they will continue to enjoy the music department.
