It Happened Here Once

The senior class once decreed that most of its members would do nothing to do with the professors outside the classroom and resented being labeled "floor-bowling." The Christian Society secured a charter of incorporation from the state in 1890.

Two women at the University are required to purchase books for the library when they were transferred. Blacking faces of freshmen was once a means of teaching them to college life.

In order for the officers to have to keep his room or in the case of a boy, his dorm, be out, buddy hauling, or other deadly drugs.

From different universities, the students were invited to join the Christian or Episcopalian literary societies, according to the principles of the church they attend.

When a student is considered to be having bad grades or having been drunk and of the clamp show, his name could be dismissed from the University.

Odds and Ends (continued from page 9)

President Michael is running a close second after Tuesday night with 20 of his group. Tenus is certain to hold on third place with the group in 26 following in the fourth position. The three others are in the running, but the student group is the favorite according to the polls.

The following officers have been elected:
Mrs. L. Ross, president; Doolie Hart, vice-president; Harvey, secretary and treasurer.

The next meeting is expected to be Mrs. W. L. Lovelace, Mrs. B. E. Jackson; Mrs. T. M. Keeler; Mrs. F. K. Bell; Mrs. O. Donoghue; Mrs. E. E. Christy; Mrs. M. C. Rogers; Mrs. L. E. Scutt; Mrs. M. B. Abernathy; Jane Barlow; Catherine Stein; Frances Morgan; Mrs. L. B. Ader; Betty Hook; Miss C. E. Pegg; Miss M. E. Smith.

All the pictures promised for the "House of Wonder" will be kept.

The "House of Wonder" was built by 26 women students for the Saturday evening program on Saturday night.

This is the last home game on the basketball schedule in the near future and is one of the most important games. North Carolina has been the most successful team in two homecoming occasions, 1937 and 1938.

Meek's Prayer By W. H. Hart

"Professor Meeks is doing a fine job of announcing over the amplifying system," says W. H. Hart, director of student activities.

Villanova Wins With Passes

Glosemos Lose 140

Carolina Thrownout To Score Only To Have Passed Three Times

Playing against a team which entered forward and lateral passes with an effective strategic arrangement, the players, the Glosemos picked on two touchdowns to the Villanovas from Villanova and dropped their first inter-collegiate game of the year in the local stadium Sunday.

Co-ed Netters Form Club

The co-ed Netters have had three meetings in the Recreation building, the women's tennis club.

The conference meeting of the Recreation, Columbia women's tennis team, played its first game of the season. Twenty-nine players were present and the members will form the basis of the team that will compete in future meets. The men's team will be played above her for a higher player from the women's team.

The following officers have been elected:
Mrs. A. Ross, president; Doolie Hart, vice-president; Harvey, secretary and treasurer.

The next meeting is expected to be the second to be held at which time all members will be admitted and receive the pictures promised for the "House of Wonder."