Bells Entertain Senior Council

The senior M. C. A. council will meet Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bell at the home of Mrs. Crowood Vore, according to James Walsh, presi- dent of the organization.

We will leave Flinn Hall ten- tes before seven o'clock and will be in time for the Carolina-Fil- fremond game. All students attending the meeting will be able to notify Mr. Bell.

The senior M. C. A. council, which has not met for about six weeks, has been given to St. Olaf's, Northfield, Ill.
