and for to me, and ask for to be seen.

In the recreation room, which is open to all students from 9 A.M. to 9 P.M., two new pool tables have been added to the four already there. A ping-pong table now occupies the corner and a small wall adjacent to the pool tables. Here students may play and gain experience for the league. About a dozen men have been practicing the game and are now ready to play.

A third feature of the new recreation room is the new checker table and a radio to play in the reading room.

Newspapers and current magazines have been placed in the reading room, and G. E. Bell assurance that any good student who takes a prize in his course may have one.

The University auxiliary, composed of women employed and wives of faculty members, will give the Y a kitchen and dining room. The dining room will be open during the day and will be used for study groups.

$1,000 has been raised in the Y campaign which began a month ago. The Y. M. C. A. office is open from 9 to 5 every day and town students may pick up books and start during the day.

For the benefit of the students and employees, a large room is set aside to be furnished with pictures, magazines and newspapers, and will be open during the day. The room will contain a large wall clock.
