Students Give Xmas Tree At Wilson's Mills

Representatives of various classes and organizations of the department of sociology at the University will give to Wilson's Mills, a community in the Eastern section of Richland county, this afternoon for the annual Christmas tree for grants for the children of the valley.

Gifts have been collected from the department that will give ample pleasure to the recipients. The proceeds from the sale of the tree will be given to the children of Wilson's Mills, and since they have become an annual affair.

GAMECOCKS TO BE PLACED AT CENTRAL BY TRUSTEES

Because of complaints from students stating that they did not know "where or how to get registros" of The Gamecock, this week's issue will be distributed at four local points on the University campus.

From approximately 3:15 a.m. on, classes will be in progress throughout the afternoon. The Gamecock will be printed in the usual manner. (1) Myrsky Gymnasium in the office of the campus. (2) Center. (3) Library. (4) Well.

In order that the increasing demand for copies may be met, additional copies of The Gamecock will be available today and every student is asked to obtain a copy at least one hour before the scheduled time.

McKissick’s Proposals Adopted By Trustees

Continuation of the dormitory plan for framing housing was advanced by Pres. J. B. McKissick in his annual report to the Board of trustees and was adopted for another year.

Concerning this move, Pres. McKissick said:

"Since the beginning of the academic year, the number of students in residence has increased to a larger extent than was anticipated in the plans of the Board of Trustees. This increase has been due to several national officers of the organization, I have expressed to them that the new policy was adopted to maintain the mental reputation of the University and not to secure revenue by recruiting numbers of freshmen to live in dormitories.

"Last June I represented the University at the center of the founding of the Gamecock College. I impressed the faculty that dormitory houses under the system there is going to provide a band course by the utilization of the dormitory as an educational center. The University is maintaining a steady, normal, unobstructed flow of students, expanding, and, by its nature, is a service of the University. The students desire more of themselves, and by increasing the number of students, we can better meet the needs of students in the dormitory and thus keep the University in front, in a time of growing competition."
