Turkey Supper To Be Held In Cafeteria

German Christmas Dance In Gymnasium Tonight

Among the sponsors for the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Christmas ball, which will be held December 13 at the alumni and active chapter are (standing left to right) Miss Barbara Rutledge, Miss Edna Green, and Miss Irwin Moore, (sitting) Miss Frances Butler.

Phi Sig Serves Xmas Dance

Supporting among the holiday dances is the Phi Sigma chapter, to be held tonight in the University gymnasium by Fay DesPortes, president.

Leading the grand march will be Peggy DesPortes, vice-president. Other officers taking part in the exercise will be Bob DOUBLETON, Patsy SIDEBURY, Fay DESPORTES, and Fay DeFortune.}

Fashion Show Is Postponed

The fashion show which was originally scheduled for Wednesday, Jan. 10, has been postponed due to heavy snow, according to Miss Helen PEMBERTON, secretary of the Phi Sigma chapter, which makes the show the last to be postponed in the University's social calendar.

Dance Held Tomorrow

The social calendar of Campus will present its Christmas ball in the gymnasium tomorrow night from 8 to 10. It will be sponsored by Phi Sigma, chapter of the University.

The ball will be decorated in red and green, appropriate colors for the season, and will feature soft music for dancing. The price of admission will be fifty cents.

Vespers To Feature Xmas

The third in a series of vespers services will be held in the halls of the Woman's Building Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Decorations of Holly and candles will be used in addition to the beautiful Christmas tree which will be set up in the center of the auditorium. The service will conclude with the reading of Christmas music that has been arranged and the service will be sung.

For the Little Town

During the Christmas season, the town will be lit up with gay lights and festoons of berries will adorn the houses. The town will be little town.

The Little Town...