Time Out

By CHUCK THOMPSON

It was a great game and every man on the team deserves a pat on the back. For an almost totally unprepared ball club (our Gamecocks) to trip the mighty Newberry—a great feat both in score and in the moral victory of U. S. C.

No one man or the Gamecocks can yet be classified as a particularly spectacular phenomenon. The combination of Joe Toddle and Harrison is, in a particular point, one while Greg- cery handled the runs with great facility. It looked a week at Newberry’s side after their tally in the first quarter. But the day was saved by a pass to Toddle in the fourth quarter and the game was won 13-12. The game was clinched in the last quarter by Bill McIlhenny who made the third and last touchdown for U.S.C.

There will be one drawback to our team when it comes to the field since Saturday afternoon—that is the absence of John Gregory and J. P. Lindsey. Coaches expect Jack Jones to replace Gregory at left half and Phil Cantreel to take Lindsey’s position at right half. Forrester and Lindsey are being transferred to another Navy station.

Carolina will have to give an outstanding performance Saturday in order to make a good showing against the 19th Infantry team. The Fort Benning 19th has a great number of former stars of college throughout the country, and the result will be hard to beat. The game is scheduled to begin at 3:30 at the University Stadium, or the Fair Grounds.

Covering Carolina’s Colleges

Presbyterian College, which barely won from Clemson in their game last Saturday. The final score was 12-10. Let’s hope that the Game- cocks can do as well and better when they meet Clemson on the 21st.

Clemson has the letterman back from last year but it seems not to impair their mostomastic power. The Tigers are relying on one of the most important games against the College of the Colosseum for their school day. The future is bright for Presbyterian College, which has the letterman back from last year, and the future looks bright for the Gamecocks.

Predictions Of The Week

As for the other predictions—The 17th St. Breuning team will scramble the University of South Carolina Gamecocks for a fair margin. This is due to the ineptitude of the Gamecocks and the poor showing in the last game.

North Carolina State will overpower Clemson. Presbyterian College will drop their game to Newberry. This will be another one of those close games.

Enough for football for the time. Let us turn to the world of baseball. It looks like the St. Louis Cardinals and the New York Giants to play the world series this year. I see the victory of the Cards and the pennant going to St. Louis this year.

Hats Off Department:

Our hats are off to this week to Chuck Arthur and Bo Rutts and the Carolina College for their commingence between halves of the Newberry game. We of Carolina are really proud of the Gamecocks and rightly so.
