The new administration has committed a good share of its defense efforts to expanding the submarine force. The Navy is scheduled to receive 300 new submarines in the next five years, and 250 of them will be available by the end of 1944. The submarines are expected to be used primarily for anti-submarine warfare.

Team Competes
Columbia vs. Limestone
The Columbia team won the match 4 to 1. Mr. Connell served as team captain. He acted as team captain for the Columbia team in the new series.

The first time that any USC tennis team has ever had a doubles team, the two players were chosen from the student body. Professor Charles E. Shuler and W. C. Meecham were selected to represent the university.

The Palmetto Cup, awarded to the winning team, was received by the Columbia team. It is a trophy which has been awarded annually to the winning team since 1932.

The event was attended by members of the student body, faculty members, and guests. The Columbia team was represented by Mr. Connell and Mr. Shuler.
