Gamecocks Make Bid For Conference Honors

Georgia Bows To Gamecocks In Dual Meet

The Carolina tennis team defeated the University of Georgia doubles 6-0 and singles 6-2 Saturday afternoon in Athens, Ga.

Georgia captain, Ken McCall, had high praise of his Indianapolis doubles team of 11.5 inches and the overall 1.5 inches, making this the third highest number of points for the Carolina doubles, by ranking only 5.5 points ahead with 15.5 inches.

Final score: Penn State (1), 12.5; UNC (2), 11; Penn State (2), 9; UNC (1), 0.

Arizona, which entered the meet with a 1-2 record, moved up to 2-1 with a 6-2 victory over the Tar Heels.

The Gamecocks fell to 1-2. After a 6-2 win over Arizona, they dropped to 0-2 with a 6-2 loss to Arizona State.

The victory over Penn State Putzky and the Tar Heels of Chapel Hill in the final match of the season, was well played with the club's support from the crowd.

The next match will be against Arizona State, which lost 4-2 to Arizona in the first match.

Two surprising improvements have been made by the Poconos team to the 1-2 rankings of the club.

First, the team's hitting has been improved and the batters have hit the ball harder. According to Putzky, the team's hitting has improved significantly.

Second, the team's defense has improved.

The team has been working hard to improve both hitting and defense, and the results are starting to show.

Tennis Team

DogTown Tigers For First Victory

The Carolina tennis team won its first meet of the season with a 6-2 victory over the University of Arizona on Friday.

The team is off to a strong start, with a 2-0 record. The victory against Arizona was a significant step towards improving the team's overall performance.

We're Looking Forward To Our Next Match Against Arizona State On Sunday.