Cottilion Club To Hold Fall Formal

Oldest Book On Campus Is Found In McKissick

The South Caroliniana library on the university campus boasts of many precious items in the form of books, but one book that has been lost and found continues to be an interesting tale. A dictionary of the Property of William Godfrey, written by Julius Malos, an Ital, was found in the basement of the South Caroliniana Library. The book was stolen from the library, and it is still being investigated. The book is entitled, "A Book Concerning..."

Library Laws To Meet Here Tomorrow

Carolina’s Chapter of American Association of Law Librarians will hold their first meeting of the year at 10 a.m. on campus. The organization holds two meetings a year, one in the spring and one in the fall. This will be the first meeting of the organization.

Eva Brian Wilson Sent To Paris After Vacation

Mrs. Ethel Wilson, Wades Hampton, has recently been to New York city where she will meet her daughter, Eva Brian, who is a student teacher. Mrs. Wilson is a graduate of the University of New Hampshire, A. B. degree in history, and presently teaches at the University of New Hampshire. She worked with the government in the Philippines before being assigned to Buenos Aires, Argentina, to assist in the state department for three years. Mrs. Wilson also has been stationed in Calcutta.

New Counseling System Set Up At Clemson

Clemson, S. C. (P.)—A formal systematic program for student counseling is being inaugurated this semester at Clemson college. Hereafter, there has been only informal and unorganized student counseling and guidance on the part of interested faculty members. The program, which is planned especially for the first-year class, will be as follows:

The dean of each school in all consultation with the registrar, will conduct the sessions. Each counselor will conduct two sessions with 10 freshmen, all of whom take the same courses in the first semester. The second semester will continue to work with those students who have the necessary courses their sophomore year, and will be assigned to the 10 freshmen at the beginning of the new year.

New Courses Are Offered At NWU For Freshmen

Krausen, R. C. (P.)—Freshmen at the College of Liberal Arts and the School of Education at Furman University this year have the opportunity to enroll in a new course, "Introduction to the Sciences of Human Behavior."

This is a 2-hour class covering the general principles of psychology and knowledge. This development has been made possible due to the successful completion of the committee of four researchers, the Carnegie Corporation of New York provided $4,500 for research materials and equipment, and the $2,500 bonus for the researchers, the Carnegie Corporation of New York provided $4,500 for research materials and equipment, and the $2,500 bonus for the researchers.

The goal of the three courses of the department is to build up the material, evaluate the materials, and to develop new lecture and demonstration techniques.

The aim is to give the students a broad and integrated orientation in the basic content area new course will be offered in the three academic fields, as well as to provide him with a foundation upon which may be drawn for advanced courses in any of the departments.

Dance Will Be Held Tuesday At Jefferson

Cottilion club, campus social organization, will hold its fall formal dinner and dance at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, November 17, 1962, at Jefferson Hotel. Dick Fencl, president, announced. Music will be provided by the Male Chorus and by Mrs. Paul Bradbee. Prof. and Mrs. I. B. Bradbee will chair the event.

Methodist Group Sponsors Party For Children

The Wesley Foundation, Methodist branch of the university, will hold a party for children at 6:30 p.m. on Friday, November 10, at the university. The event will be held in the library and will include games and a raffle.

Yale Law School Makes Proposal On Segregation

Dean Bernard Palus of the university law school said today that he was unable to announce a present proposal of the Yale Law School that the American Bar Association for law students who are reluctant to graduate from the law school.

The anti-discrimination policy was implemented by the Yale Law School in the association’s annual meeting here in December, 1962, and was carried out by the association.

Alpha Delta Pi Presents Radio To Chapter

Pledges of Alpha Delta Pi were entertained by radio and record player to make the evening one of the most enjoyable events of the year. Betty Mars, Gail Mary, and Martha Ellen were present at the event.

Marriage Courses Offered Now At Carolina

There are fewer courses among couples who take courses in marriage preparation. In college among students who did take courses see over one quarter, according to a survey of Carolina. In the survey of Carolina, only one out of four students take courses in marriage preparation.

Dr. Hill, who is professor of chemistry in the university’s Institute for Research on Aging, has conducted his survey of the patients and the marital experiences of the patients at the hospital.

There are now between 600 and 800 students enrolled in college and university giving courses in marriage preparation. The students have a greater deal of time to spend with their own students. In the last 20 years these students have been definitely accepted in most institutions as an essential part of the curriculum, the said.

At the professor rushed into the kitchen and said, "I had the keys, but I snapped it over the students' head, and the entire time elapses... This is what I'm going to do in acoop course..."

"I'm sure a little atom is split myself in two... I multiply as many times as I have to do this... In summer, winter, spring, or fall I'm ready every hour... You push a switch and watch me sip with light... or heat or..."

"Betty Krollow Your Electric Servant"

"I can't be irresistible... in VANUDO"

new corndbury sport shirts

"We do the world's business..."

Van Heusen Shirts

9 Van Heusen Shirts

No need to shuffle or change—just look! I'm over it! I'm better than my Harvard bursar. In height, wide-awake eyes, these corndbury shirts do not disappoint. Let nothing stand in your way, see Vadour today.

SOUTH CAROLINA Electric & Gas Company

Try the Wagon Wheel

By MARLENE BAST

By now I guess all the stragglers have gotten in from the weekend at Charleston... all ready to begin again for the Homecoming game.

PI Kappa Phi’s attending the game and partying in Charleston this weekend were: GENE LEWIS, JIM SINGLETON, BILL DAVIS, JIMMIE BROWN, LAWRENCE PLOY, GENE WOODWARD, ZEKY BARBOUR, T. J. CURTIS, FRANKY PAUL, BILL BILLINGS, JOHN JONES, WILLIE JONES, BILLY BRIGGS, MIKE SMITH, MIKIE McGRATH, HENNIE FOWLER and JOE COLEMAN.

Lambda Chi’s represented at the Carolina-Citadel game Saturday afternoon were: JERRY McGUIR, BILL RICHARDSON, BOB LANGSTED, JIMMIE BOWMAN, BILL BILLINGS, JIMMIE KEITH, BILL EDGERTON, BILL FIELD, SAM GAILLARD, J. T. MALDON, BILL LOMAS and BILLY BUNDY.

To change the subject slightly, JACK CANGLE of Hamlet, N. C., pinned PEGGY HOUSE, PI of Philadelphia. Another "lucky" girl this week was MARY BERRY of Columbia, who was pinned by BOB WOODWARD, PI Kappa Phi.

PI Phi’s were really busy this past weekend. SUSANNE MOYE took in the Tam O’Shanter Weekend and football game. Carson and McDaniel tied and DOBBS MEYER attended the North Carolina football game at Chapel Hill, BILL GRAYBIRD, who has already made two bids, being outbid by MINK WOODALL’s in his home on the Isles of Palms, and PI’s in the taking in game were: BILLY LOU Wiring, MARTY RITTEN, BILLIE SKEITH, SARAH WELCH, and KENNY NYSK. Just to kill a little time.

NORMA BERGMAN and JENNY SACHS, ZTA; JEAN ELEAZER, ZTA; ALLEN; KEN CREIEL, GEORGE SHAW, and CLAYTON GROVER, were spectators at the tragic game last Saturday afternoon.

Newly elected officers of the Phi Kappa Sigma pledge class are: PRESIDENT, DAVE FIEHLING, Lewiston, N. Y.; VICE-PRESIDENT, PERRY BARNES, Lewiston, N. Y.; SECRETARY, JACQUELINE BURGESS, Lewiston, N. Y.; TREASURER, VICKI LAURIE, Columbia, S. C.; and SERGEANT-AT-ARMS, GENE WOODALL.

Phi Eta was busy in Charleston last weekend for the Carolina and dance war were: STEWARD APLEAUME, RAY STEIN, BILL KIRK, DON WAMPLER, DOBBS MEYER; VICE-PRESIDENT, ANN LORICK; SECRETARY, MOPPER SATTERY- FIELD; TREASURER, FRANKIE GORDON; VICE PRESIDENT, CHARLIE WALKER; and CHAIRMAN, BETTY JO EDINS.

Sigma Nu’s journeying down to Charleston last weekend for the Carolina and dance war were: AL FISHER, PAUL FIELD, MELVIN HURST, PHIL WALKER, JIMMY BAXTER, FRANK FREEMAN, BILL BERT, LARRY CHADWICK, CHARLIE WALKER, BOB WEST, FRANK OWEN, CLAY GILES, DAVID BERNSTED, NICKY DONN, and WALTER KENON (alum). Sigma Nu’s and dates danced at the WKEU dance were: DOUG STOKES with MARIA MITCHELL, BILL PULZI; CLAUDE SCARBOURGH with LAWSON YATES, TR DILL; BOB SMITH with BETTY WILSON, PI PHI; and WALTER KENON with NANCY MITCHELL, TR DILL. Never a dull moment!

Sigma Nu’s and dates paired last Friday night at SORORITY BALL.

Phi Kappa present on the "marooners" bench Saturday were: BEN EDISON, JOE ASKEW, ED TEAGUE, PETER HAMMONT, JOHN HENRY, CLYDE BUTTRY, ROY MOODY, EXXIE TREXLER, CHARLIE FERGUSON, DICK JORDON, JOHNNY HARRIN, CHARLIE SHOLAY, GEORGE LEE; and TOMY YOUNGMAN. Phi Kappa also held a "fat kid" party at alumni brother ED TEAGUE’s lake, Barnwell, Saturday.

JOE PITTMAN and VERNON POSTON, Phi Kappa Phi, spent the weekend in Lake City with friends. Joe broke his ankle during the game and was later hospitalized by a visit by alumni, ZEKY BARBOUR, WHIT PLOWDEN, and "SMILEY" BASON at their meeting Monday night.

Also seen at the Charleston game were: HULDIA COBB, BERNICE JEFFCOAT, SYLVIA BERRY, and HOW- AND YOUNG.

PI K. A’s DICKIE LEATPORT and "RUST" RAB- BERRY broke the monopoly last weekend and took a trip to Winthrop. Jim CLAWFORD, PI K A alum, presented "honor" a chapter with a visit. PI Kappa Alpha initiated FRANK REYNOLDS of Bishopsville, S. C., last Monday night.

If you have any news with the Wagon Wheel, please send it to Box 79, THE GAMECOCK.