Independents, Alpha Delta Pi's, Tri-Delts Advance In Tourney

By NOELA EBERHARD

Alpha Delta Pi defeated Kappa Delta Wednesday night after the KDP's had defated the Chi Omega's Thursday. Tuesday night the Tri-Delts played the Independents to determine the opposition for the A-D-P's.

Kappa Delta was defeated 25-17 by the A-D-P's after having defeated the Chi O's 19-12. Delta Delta Delta defeated Zeta Tau Alpha 3-2.

The Independents begin their playoffs today. In league 5, the Cornells and McGuffey are tied for first. Tressett 0 was seeded first place in league when they defeated ASME Wednesday.

The Dhikai and the Alpha's are tied for second place in league. It is to be decided pending a game between intoxicated 29 and ASME.

Many plants are being played for the opening of the intramural football season which is scheduled to begin immediately after the Thanksgiving holidays. The Independent Intramural Council notified Monday, November 20, in the intramural offices at 8 a.m. that they will organize the schedule of games.

Any organization playing for the title is to be notified by the council on Monday. The council will determine who will be the winner if there are two or more tied for the title. For further information, contact the council at 8 a.m. today.

The Dhikai team is now located in the basement of the gym and can be reached by calling 283.

Sparks and Strickland Selected By Shriners

All-Bowl也不再存在。斯派克斯和斯特里克兰德由兄弟会接受邀请参加在北方的南卡罗来纳大学和南卡罗来纳大学的邀请赛。两队队伍在星期四轮流比赛，斯特里克兰德在星期五比赛后将与南卡罗来纳大学和南卡罗来纳大学的队伍比赛。

The mighty Georgia offensive line will clash with one of similar stature against the defense of the Tar Heel backfield. Both teams will be playing in the first 15-12 game this year.

The Southern Conference of the South Carolina and South Carolina will play for their points the last of the last. Last year's Southern Conference saw two teams tied for the All-State team, and it is expected to be held for again this year.

Veteran halfback Bishop Stith, All-State in '47, '48, '49, and second team All-Conference in '48, and '49, has been missing since his suspension in last season. The Southern Conference of the South Carolina will probably be the last strange man for both Strickland and Sparks. Both are high in the ranks as future professional football players.

Birds Seek Upset Win After Disappointment

It will be a battle of two No. 8's when the Shriners face off against the Carolina Tar Heels tomorrow afternoon at Carolina Stadium. A crowd of 16,000 is expected to be on hand for the kick-off at 2 p.m.

This is the twenty-sixth meeting of these two powerhouse teams and should be one of the best. The Tar Heels were victims last year 28 to 15, but the moral support furnished by Charlie Justice will be gone this year and the North Carolina Tar Heels will have to rely upon their own resources.

The Gamecocks, suffering from a defeat at the hands of The Citadel last Saturday, have been working hard all week in an effort to score an upset over the favored Tar Heels. Special emphasis has been placed on offensive blocking and adequate protection for kickers.

The Carolina Tar Heels are out to get vengeance on the Gamecocks who were defeated by 28-10. The Gamecocks will have to rely upon their own resources to get a win.

The Tar Heel team will be led by former UNC quarterback Fred Holdash, a 28-year-old senior, in a
