Mr. and Mrs. Jackson were playing golf. As he drove off the ninth tee, Mr. Jackson hit a ball into a pot of flowers, and the ball hit a woman who was also not golfing with her husband.

Nees Student Help

A forty-foot workshop has been set up at the Town Theatre on Ferry Street. The addition will make it possible for more people to work on stage construction and enable them to work while plays are in rehearsal.

Technical director Hal Shadowell welcomes any university student who wishes to help with stage construction. He says that he will be especially happy to see anyone in the next two weeks to aid in preparing for the theater's next production, "Heartbreak House."
