Thoughtful Friend — "My man, why don't you take the streetcar home?"

Illustrated One — "Oh, no sake. My wife wouldn't let me keep it in the house.

Ethel — "What do you do when you get an unusually beautiful gal?"

Jenny — "I look for it, then get tired and lay the mower down.

He — "We're coming to a tunnel — are you afraid?"

She — "No, but you took that cigar out of my mouth.

There are five stages of Banksy and Water. The first is 'Banksy.' The second is 'Banksy and Water.' The third is 'Banksy.' The fourth is 'Banksy and Water.' The fifth is 'Banksy.'

"Are you going to the Micollet tomorrow?"

"No," said his brother, "what makes you ask a question like that while we are eating?"

"For the last time, are you going to the Micollet tomorrow?"

"Yes, you愚蠢." (To the man next to him.)

"I don't know what the matter is. I never danced as poorly before." (To himself.)

Annual a sucker for attractive bait, our aquatic brother went off the deep end and got caught on the quick-trick cigarette hook! He was bewitched by his own beauty and realized that cigarette mildness can't be fended off real lightly. Millions of smokers have found, too, there's only one true test of cigarette mildness.

It's the sensible test—the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camel as your steady smoke on a day-after-day, week-after-week judgment.

Once you're tried Camel for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Thrust, T for Taste), you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests...
