Seismological Society Elects Officers Here

Officers for the Eastern Section of the Seismological Society of America were elected at the university meeting here last week.

Dean S. Ceard of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, Washington, D. C., was elected chairman. Other officers are: Rev. Henry P. Berghaven, S. R., St. Louis University, vicar; Dr. R. S. H. Bowers, of Pennsylvania State University, secretary; Robert S. Liener, St. John's College, in Delaware, treasurer; and Dr. H. L. S. Miller, of St. Louis University, executive committee member.

The next meeting of the group will be held at the State University of New York.

A long period of absence from their usual meeting, the Seismological Society of America, and the related Academy of Science and Geodetic Survey.

The meeting was held at the University of California, Berkeley.

The U. S. Geological Survey has elected 15 students to the Academy of Science and Geodetic Survey.

The elections were made by the Academy for the 1953-1954 year.

The students were: Dr. Robert E. Morley, Dr. E. H. McVey, and Dr. E. J. Shannon.

The University of Georgia, Athens, has elected 15 students to the Academy of Science and Geodetic Survey.

These students were: Dr. Robert E. Morley, Dr. E. H. McVey, and Dr. E. J. Shannon.

The University of California, Berkeley, has elected 15 students to the Academy of Science and Geodetic Survey.

These students were: Dr. Robert E. Morley, Dr. E. H. McVey, and Dr. E. J. Shannon.

The University of California, Berkeley, has elected 15 students to the Academy of Science and Geodetic Survey.

These students were: Dr. Robert E. Morley, Dr. E. H. McVey, and Dr. E. J. Shannon.

The University of California, Berkeley, has elected 15 students to the Academy of Science and Geodetic Survey.

These students were: Dr. Robert E. Morley, Dr. E. H. McVey, and Dr. E. J. Shannon.