Does it seem like spring is only on the horizon? It’s cold. That’s March for you...
The old adage “March comes in like a lion and out like a lamb” seems to be a little too basic this year. With summer-like days the month is marked by warming sunshine and simmertime activities.

(AAP) — Lack of journalism experience shouldn’t deter a student from gaining practical experience in the field. All the college campus newspapers are woven with the fabric ofraid, Redlands, Calif.

A novice often has journalistic aspirations of which he is unaware. He is also the one who克莱 benefits most from the discipline and experience offered by the college paper.

The beginner may even have an advantage over the experienced reporter who worked on a newspaper in high school.

Although some high schools’ journalism courses may fail to maintain high journalistic standards, and some high schools produce little more than group newspapers. Even the schools which strive for quality often lack the resources and expertise to teach novice students who have no pre-
