Pledges Plan New Activities

On Monday evening of the second week of March, the Lambda Chi Alpha pledge group met face to face with the officers for the spring of 1964. Included were Dr. Russell, President; Gary Godbee as Vice-President, Jim Branch as Secretary, Pete Graniba as Treasurer, and Ann Danner as Financial Secretary. The new officers will be elected by a series of ballots. The meeting was to be held on Monday evening at 9:00 p.m.

Fraternity Inducts A Professor

On Sunday, Feb. 23, 1964, the Alpha Theta chapter of Phi Delta Kappa induct Professor Max Levy as an associate member of the fraternity. Professor Levy has been serving as a faculty advisor since the beginning of the fall semester. A Spanish professor in the Foreign language department, Professor Levy has attended several international meetings of the office of Iowa. He is presently completing the required material for the degree.

Sew Spring Wardrobe And Have Some Fun

It isn’t “natural talent” that makes her “sew” a dummy girl in town — it’s hard work, according to Mary Carol McCall, the sewing department. Mary is the girl who answers the phones and sorts the clothes addressed to her — and she has run with the “Fat T” for over five years. “Some women,” says Mary, “may be more skilled at visualizing fabric, but I am a finished design, but it is still attention to detail that will produce a custom garment.”

Perfect Off and Finishing have a habit of making the simple, complex and the complex, simple. A complete spring and summer wardrobe that will demote the faddish trend of today.

For instance, McCall’s patterns will offer three basic packages that can produce five or more outfits and match colors — a dress pattern, a coat pattern, and a suit pattern. Each skirt pattern can be worn as a dress, as an outfit, and for any occasion. The end result is a skirt that can be worn as a skirt, dress, or suit.

New Awards Presented At Sorority’s Supper

By NIYA MURRAY

On Saturday, February 28, Alpha Chi Omega held its annual spring initiation. Those new into the society were introduced to the organization’s buttons, pins, and patches. Patches for Alumnae, Founders, Founders’ Daughters, and Officers were issued. Alumnae were asked to wear their patches and to be in attendance at the initiation banquet.

At the initiation banquet at Beta’s Bran’s Home on evening of February 28th, awards were presented: Best Pledge, Chris Honor, Best Pledge, Peggy Fiddes, Gilbe Edwards, Best Pledge, “What Alpha Chi Omega Means To Me,” Miss Peggy Fiddes; Honorable mention for the paper was given to Sherry Williams who received a special Banquet Award. The banquet banquet was held at the home of Sherry Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Sherry Williams.

The banquet banquet was held at the home of Sherry Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Sherry Williams.

Bantam Beauty

June Turner is this week’s choice for Bantam Beauty. She is a senior major who attributes the success of her career to John’s early years with her. John’s early years with her.

Ceremony Presented By Women

On Thursday, February 28, the Pan-Hellenic Council held its annual spring ceremony at the Phi Delta Chi ballroom. The ceremony was held in honor of the women. The ceremony was held in honor of the women.

Our Gamecode Special $1.00

BUTTERED RUM, FRENCH FRIES, FRESH TOSSED SALAD AND THE ONLY RESTAURANT IN TOWN THAT SERVES THIS ITEM CONSISTENTLY CHARCOAL BROILED. OPEN 24 HOURS DAILY

Shimmy’s Restaurant, Inc.

1111 Lady Street
Columbia, South Carolina

Check Our Fountain Specials

5 p.m. to 11 p.m. each day

GIANT SODA

Hamburger

Large Cheese

Hot Chocolate

CAMPBELL’S CORNELL PHARMACY

Knee-High Stockings

ELLA’S

“Serving Students Since 1936...”

Charcoal Broiled Steak Special

Buttered Bun, Fresh Tossed Salad and Fresh Fries...

SHUDDAM BEAUTY

 forces of a coordinated women’s movement. This is a place to be try-on, to be tried, to be pinned, to be made, to be perfect, and to be finished.

Sew Spring Wardrobe And Have Some Fun

It isn’t “natural talent” that makes her “sew” a dummy girl in town — it’s hard work, according to Mary Carol McCall, the sewing department. Mary is the girl who answers the phones and sorts the clothes addressed to her — and she has run with the “Fat T” for over five years. "Some women," says Mary, "may be more skilled at visualizing fabric, but I am a finished design, but it is still attention to detail that will produce a custom garment."

Perfect Off and Finishing have a habit of making the simple, complex and the complex, simple. A complete spring and summer wardrobe that will demote the faddish trend of today.

For instance, McCall’s patterns will offer three basic packages that can produce five or more outfits and match colors — a dress pattern, a coat pattern, and a suit pattern. Each skirt pattern can be worn as a dress, as an outfit, and for any occasion. The end result is a skirt that can be worn as a skirt, dress, or suit.

New Awards Presented At Sorority’s Supper

By NIYA MURRAY

On Saturday, February 28, Alpha Chi Omega held its annual spring initiation. Those new into the society were introduced to the organization’s buttons, pins, and patches. Patches for Alumnae, Founders, Founders’ Daughters, and Officers were issued. Alumnae were asked to wear their patches and to be in attendance at the initiation banquet.

At the initiation banquet at Beta’s Bran’s Home on evening of February 28th, awards were presented: Best Pledge, Chris Honor, Best Pledge, Peggy Fiddes, Gilbe Edwards, Best Pledge, “What Alpha Chi Omega Means To Me,” Miss Peggy Fiddes; Honorable mention for the paper was given to Sherry Williams who received a special Banquet Award. The banquet banquet was held at the home of Sherry Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Sherry Williams.

The banquet banquet was held at the home of Sherry Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Sherry Williams.