South Carolina's baseball Gamecocks won again Monday when they defeated the Tigers of Georgia 13-1 in a Saturday-Sunday-Sunday series in the 60th Annual Atlantic Coast Conference. The Gamecocks will be 1-0 in the series to start the season.

The Gamecocks built up a 5-2 lead with the ninth run coming in the top of the second inning. The series will end with the game at 6-2.

The Golfers' Gamecocks won three more times this week, but not because of their best efforts. Georgia made their debut, but the Gamecocks were the best team in the field.

Georgia's two players, Elwood Brown and Melvin McGee, came up second, however. The North Mississippi, Georgia, and Alabama teams defeated the Gamecocks in the two games they played. Georgia's two players were surprised and disappointed, but they knew that was the way their team would play.
