I'm happy to say that The Gancrock has found someone to write this column, and that's me. I can't reveal my name yet as the mystery going around the campus will be "Who's the idiot writing Cocktales now?"

Oh, well, pongo, you'll know only too soon (which might prove to be an awkward situation for me). Those of you who know me will probably recognize some of my most-familiar expressions. But at any rate, here I am, and wasn't the Dionne Warwick concert the greatest? I'm proud to say that I have some pet points that are exactly like the dress she wore. The other girls idolize me now. !

I see that the Carolina women will be missing out on the latest spring fashions. That's too bad! What can I do with my new pants-suit? I refuse to take it back to the department store, they would never believe me!

I hear the latest rage in Fil-Ton is some kind of slip over your pants. Of course, some of the unfortunate girls have pufted over their faces with the cream. Oh, well, you can't win them all, girls. Isn't that a secret? (pep, a familiar expression)

I'm sure all you will make the scene at D.A.Y.'s see J.C. and girls within the next week. But for those of you who can't make it there, why don't you go to The Golden Spur? It will be open again in March and I'll let you know when.

Phi Eta's had a unique experience being put on probation. I hear there's a real crowd planned for March 1, also, I heard through the grape (would you believe wine?) that Phi Kappa Sig's new man is standing up 12 girls for a Saturday night rush party. Looking for dates now, but I bet it's great about the Kays, how they're going strong for Lent. What do the Sigma Chi's mean by the Big X?....

Carolina men and women wore little boys and girls during the recent snowfall, I never see snow so many snowballs flying through the air in my life, and I got hit quite a few times, too. It felt like boys had rocks in their snowballs; they don't play fair!!!! You have seen the new movie "How It Is." You walk in, and they hand you a paper bag. That was bad, so I stop now and don't worry cause I'll be here with you next week for the latest happenings around our campus.
