Green Street Church set to take case to high court

By CHERYL MANNING

Staff Writer

Green Street Church continues its struggle for life. For one year as of this month, the Columbus Housing Authority notified the church that its site was included in the East Glencoe Urban Renewal Project.

The church is prepared to take its struggle to the Supreme Court if necessary, according to Rev. C. Murray Yarborough, minister.

Origin of moon is sought

Chuck Staglis, net

There has been something about the moon that has captured the imagination of man. Many people have sought to determine the facts about the moon, but nobody has been able to come to any conclusion.

The moon is a sphere of unknown composition, and no one knows for sure what its inner structure is like. It is thought that the moon is made up of rocks and minerals, but the exact composition is still a mystery.

1970 grant-in-aid scholarships offered

COLUMBIA.

Several scholarships and fellowships are now available to seniors, who plan to graduate during the fall of 1970. The Wardrobe Women National Fellowship primarily aids students in the humanities and social sciences who are interested in attending college level courses in music, science, and mathematics. Fellowships are available to students currently in the general field who will be free to undertake graduate work in the fall, as long as funds are available.

The foundation awards up to $30 a year, with additional stipends for married students with children.

All candidates must be a member of a faculty member. Faculty members should send candidates names, current mailing addresses, and a brief statement about the candidate's academic background and future plans. The foundation will be notified of any candidates who are accepted into the fellowship.

The foundation's purpose is to support students who are entering graduate school in the fall and who plan to pursue a teaching career at the University.

Alabama Democratic leader outlines his party's plans

Dr. DON BARB

Staff Writer

It is because of you that there is still hope for the lower class of students. The Alabama Democratic leaders are working hard to ensure that these students have a voice in our future.

Speaking before an audience of supporters, Dr. Barbara said, "We will not let our voices be ignored. We will continue to fight for the rights of all Americans."

The Alabama Democratic leaders have made it clear that they will continue to work for the betterment of Alabama. They believe that the future of our state is in the hands of the people, and they will work tirelessly to ensure that the people have a voice.
