President urges research
Violent acts shock Jones

University senate may become a reality soon

AFRO studies major may begin in spring

Safe from attack?
Conference to study organizations gripes

Mungo speaks in Commons Room

Exuma surpasses Grand Funk

Trustee rap

Violent acts shock Jones

President Thomas F. Jones made this year's last attack on the campus. It occurred on a stormy Friday night after a scorching day which various students had agreed upon. The stormy day was disrupted by the students, who charged into buildings with violence. The students occupied the hallways of various buildings, and the campus was充斥着学生。It is hard to believe that this event could have occurred.

A cord who had before been known as the quietest of the students, was threatened and raped at the Chasten Highway. They were not returning from a "handsome" visit to the Chasten Highway, but had been, and were

The University is seriously concerned about these incidents. The University is not going to accept these problems in any form. The University will not tolerate any form of violence on the campus.

The creation of a University Senate is the most important development of the Think Tank Task Force. A meeting was held last week at which the Think Tank Task Force was told that the Senate is being developed. In addition, six members of the Senate have been appointed by the Board of Trustees.

The University Senate may become a reality soon. In schools which have this type of program, the University Senate has proved to be a valuable asset to the Senate. It has been proved that the Senate is the most important development of any type. It has been proved that the Senate is the most important development of any type.

White House appoints two USC

Two members of the White House has been appointed to USC. These two members have been appointed to USC. These two members have been appointed to USC. These two members have been appointed to USC. These two members have been appointed to USC.