BY BOB CRAFT

The Tall and Short Revue

The Tall and Short Company were in the Golden Spur last evening with their revue, "Broadway Babies Grow Up." The music ran the gamut from "Jesus Christ, Superstar" to "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown." The revue also included comedy take-offs on famous scenes in the contemporary musical theatre such as the "If They Could See Her Through My Eyes" from "Cabaret." The revue was presented by University Union Cultural Series.